

I rely heavily on the wireless service in the Continental Airlines President's Club. My job requires much travel and this service has allowed me to utilize my time productively while waiting for flights. It is good for the FCC to allow me to choose the service I want to use.